INFORMATION PAPER ON THE ARMY
CONFIGURATION MANAGEMENT ADVISORY GROUP (CMAG)

1. Purpose. To provide information on the 14-18 Aug 00 CMAG meeting in Huntsville, AL.

2. Background. The CMAG was formed to publish an interim AMC standard to replace soon to be cancelled MIL-STD-973 and MIL-STD-2549 and to support Configuration Management within the Army.

3. Accomplishments:
- Reviewed all draft Data Information Packets (DIPs) and came to consensus on all.
- Reviewed front section and Appendices A and E and came to consensus on their content.
- Reviewed and dispositioned all remaining comments on AMC-STD-2549A draft.
- Reviewed Draft Test/Implementation Plan – further input required to complete.
- Set milestones for final document preparation.
- Pending funding approval, TACOM will provide test environment for all participating MSCs to test a Data Set of local legacy data created manually in 2549 DIP format.
